¹ At the time BA and MA were not as clearly separated in Finland as they are now, and one could study both in the same package.

I have also studied basics of Chinese (3 yrs), Japanese (1 yr), Hindi (1,5 yr) and Russian (2 yrs).

CURRENT JOB

Senior Lecturer of Theory of Visual Culture at Aalto University, School of ARTS, Department of Art

Starting date: 1 February 2006 (lecturer), Permanent Job since 2009 January, turned into Senior Lecturer immediately when the system changed in my program in 2015.

My current work has included teaching MA and doctoral students the following courses: academic writing, philosophy and theory of art (aesthetics), introduction to visual culture, museum and gallery studies, festival studies, film studies, and a variety of other courses with varying topics + visits on courses in design, fashion, etc. I have taken part in selecting students for the MA programs Visual Culture, Creative Business Management and Contemporary Art, Curating, and Visual Culture (2006-2018), and to the doctoral programs of the Aalto departments of Art and Media (2008-2009) and Art (2010-2018). I ran the doctoral seminar (with community) in the Department of Art and Media 2009-2011.

Administration-wise I have been head of the MA program Visual Culture, Curating, and Contemporary Art (ViCCA) 2017-2019 (2,5 years), vice head of department 2010-2011, and head of MA program Visual Culture (2006-2009), with a maximum of 8 people I have supervised

9. 1994 Dancer, Drive or Die, Kaapelitehdas Helsinki, Coreographer Ari Numminen, Director Kari Heiskanen. 14 performances. Production: Theatre Academy and Finnish Broadcasting Company YLE (TV1).

IN THE MEDIA / SOCIETAL IMPACT

I have been interviewed/reviewed for e.g. Helsingin Sanomat, Los Angeles Times, Dance LV Latvia, Slovenian National Radio, Finnish and Swedish language public broadcasting radio and TV, Kansan Uutiset, Satakunnan Kansa, Aamulehti, The Guardian, etc.

Even more, I have organized events (see above 1), ran galleries with philosophical ideas (5, 6, 8 in the public art activities; featured e.g. Richard Shusterman's the golden man project), but also published on current topics and problems in newspapers (HS, Hbl, Vihreä Lanka, etc) when I have felt that this has been needed. I have been in the national radio and television a couple of times when I have felt that an intervention has been useful (although I am mostly a personality that does not enjoy media attention).

As a member of the board of a variety of cultural journals, like Kulttuurivihkot (2002-2004), Esitys (2013-2016; editor in chief for 2 issues), Mustekala (2008-2010) and Ice Hole (2013-2016) I have of course had impact too, although I think it craves too much work to have that kind of 'hobbies' when you chair an academic job.
